Triglav National Park:

The only national park in Slovenia. The Triglav National Park is located in north-western Slovenia, on the border with Italy and close to the border with Austria, in the south-eastern part of the Alpine massif. Vast, enchanting forests, deeply carved valleys, high mountain pastures and crystal clear water flowing from the slopes of the highest mountain, Triglav, into rivers, lakes and streams.

Karst region:

The Karst and Brkini are a very special world. Their appearance and soul are due to stone long ago shaped by both water and man. Visit the Karst and fall in love with the beautiful signs of this dynamic coexistence on the edge of the Mediterranean.

The Slovene writers' path:

Visiting the points along the path is a way to get acquainted with, learn about, and above all enjoy the literary tradition connected to individual landscapes. It is an integrated and unique project that creates a living museum in the form of points along a transversal branch through all Slovene landscapes.

Walk of peace:

When you embark on the journey from the Alps to the Adriatic Sea you will be immediately embraced by a feeling of peace which was not always palpable along the banks of the rivers of Soča and Piave on the territory of Slovenia and Italy. The flows of history and these two rivers are turbulent and unpredictable, which makes the war heritage that left a permanent mark on the people, the landscape and the world impossible to ignore. A century after World War I, we link more than 300 monuments into a unique, over 500 kilometres-long the Walk of Peace from the Alps to the Adriatic trail.
